PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING

PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR: er, CORDIAL.

THE WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed, has engaged the usedical savans of London, Parie, and the chief cities of Europe. Its virtue has been tested, and proclaimed by the highest names in the Equality of those cities, and testimonials have been presented to its discoverer by the Academies of Medicine of London, Edinburgh, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. During a sojeum in Arabia Petrea, Professor Morse was afflicted with a nervous fever, brought on by intense excitement and improdent exertions in a torrid season of the year, which defied his own knowledge of curative means, and for some time threatened a fatal termination. A Shiek of one of the native tribes at length induced him to take a medicine prepared from the rosts of herbs common to a mountainous region of the country, which in a few days not only restored bins to vigorous health, but renewed the strength of his constitution in a marvellous degree of the strength of his constitution in a marvellous degree.

It some of the principal ingredients used to making this CORDIAL. It is obtained at great expense by the Proprietor and Manufacturer, Mr. Morse, M. D., New York City. It is the only infallible remedy yet discovered for Nervous, Head and Mind Complaints; it is the mental physic, long sought for and never before found, the only natural agent that can "administer to a mind diseased." In cases of Neurains, Headenbe, Vertigo, pain in the nervee of the fisce, and the various train of Nervous Affections, it will produce a cure in an astenishms short period of time: and it will also remove Depression. WORCESTER, June I. 1363.

DEAR SIR—It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial which he tells me he has taken two weeks, and that he is entirely cared. He alteredy looks like a new person who so short a time since looked so pale and thin, and was exercive able to crawl amond. I thought it scarcely possible for him ever to regain his full strength and faculties; his case was an extremely bad mas. I prescribed the sural medicine need in such cases in the Hospital, but they were of no effect. In the mean time my petient had procured some of your Cordial, which effected a cure, I am saintied no other medicine could have done. I shall ever warmly recommend it whenever an opportunity occurs. The inventor in my younger days I well remember, as being considered one of the most sailiful physicians in the United States, and had heard his Cordial very highly spoken of but was one of the incredulous as to its ments until I was so unexpectedly and attisfactority convinced to the contrary.

Have not it a single instance that has been anthenticated, given their esaction to any other preparation for the shove complaints. It has in many violent and desperate cases effected radical cures, after patients had been abundanced and their conditions pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

My office having been in a store where this Cordial was kept for sale for over three years, and my apportunities of junging of its effects somewhat numerous, the vastly increasing demand, and that without a single advertisament, tells for itself. I have seen a case of weakness, which had resisted all trentment for over five years, both in this place and Philadelphia, and the person a fair candidate for suicide, radically cured with one doson bothes. He had spent hundreds without relief, and was cared with twenty-four tollars worth of Dr. Morace Cordial.

I am acquainted, both as to its medical virtues and reasonable price at which you sell it. I am ranch pleased with its effects, and can with confidence recommend it to the patronage of the profession on a valuable as alliery for removing diseases in some of the most troublemone forms, and to all as a afe and valuable medicine.

BEWARE of IMPOSITION!

The greater the value of any discovery the higher it is held in the estreme of the public, and so much in proportion is that public fiable to be imposed upon by the spurious initiations of ignorant, designing and dishonest men, who, like the drone on the hive, have neither the ability nor inclination to provide for themselves, but thrive and insuriate upon the earnings of the deserving.

Now that this preparation is well known to be a more certain cure for incipient CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, LIV-ER COMPLAINT, COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, and all similar affections, than any other remody ever known, there will be, and NOW ARE, found those so villamously wicked as to concoct a spurious, and perhaps a poisonous mixture, and try to palm it off as the genuine Balsam.

This is to caution dealers and the public generally against purchasing any other than that HAVING THE WRITTEN SIGNATURE OF I. BUTTS on the wrapper. The rest merely imitate the name of the original, while they possess none of its virtues.

Originally prepared by Williams & Co., Philadelphia, now prepared and sold, wholesale and ratail, only by SETH WFOWLE, Boston, Mass, to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by his agents throughout the country.

WOLFE'S CELEBRATED SCHIE WOLFE'S CELEBRATED SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.—No other Holland Gin, of equal parity of rectification, can be obtained either in the American or foreign markets, at any price. It is manufactured by the proprietor exclusively, at Schoidam, in Holland, by a process peculiar to his own factory. It is flavored, not by the common barsh berry, but by the choice of botanical variety of the Aromaric Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, and thus becomes a concentrated functure of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendent in its contial properties, to any Holland Gin heretoface known. For sale by the principal Druggists in the United States, and at No. 22 Beaverst. EDOLPHO WOLFE, importer.

Aromatic Schwapps.—In another column of to-day's Mirror will be found the card of Udolpho Wolfe, No. 22 Beaverst., setting forth the virtues of his celebrated Aromatic Schwidam Schwapps. We might hesitate in indorsing all that is chained in his card, bad we not the testimony of several parties personally known to us, who have thoroughly tested this cordial, and found it, without an exception, more than equal to its advertised virtues. Mr. Wolfe is the sole dealer in this choice and remarkable invigorator, and no one, after a single test of its morrits, will require further proof in its favor. We can, therefore, commend it to our readers and the public, it has the unmistakable flavor of the pure juniper juice. So great is the demand for this article, that we combined by predict half a million profit to the manufacturer in five years.

AN OLD MEDICINE REVIEWD.—In days of yore, as we have all learned from the old folks, no medicine was as useful to have in the house, or so good, in many disease, as pure Holland Gin. For a long time, however, the genuine atticle could not be had, until lately, it has rabpetared ander the new name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapp. The article appears to be menufactured exclinatively by Udopho Wolfe, as Pethiedam, in Holland, and put up in quart and pint bottles, expressly for medicinal purposes, with his name on the seal, bottle and label, to protect it against counterfeits. What a great blessing it is for persons resulting in the interior of our Southern and Western States that they can now purchase a pure and unadulterated article of Gin with confidence, without the least liability of deception or dissatisfaction. That it will tend to diminish the consumption of the common, deleterious and spurious liquors which now almost exclusively pervade this country, admits of no doubt. We consider the usedical profession and the traveling community are under obligations to Mr. Wolfe

WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHEDAM SCHAPPS.—We perceive that this liquor is coming into very general use for medicinal purposer, and with very happy effect. In the hands of physicians, it is proving itself, as a stimulating duretic to be emmently successful after other medication with this intent had been tried in vain. In one of the cases thus reported, abdominal dropsy has been cured, and the necessity of tapping averted; and in another, a distressing case of gravel, so called, has been entirely removed by the passage of a calculus of considerable size, which is ascribed to the use of only two bottles of this article. The Editor of The New-York Medical Gazette, Dr. Reese—good authority in such matters—speak thus of this article. The Editor of The New-York Medical Gazette, Dr. Reese—good authority in such matters—speak thus of this article; "As regards its medicines and curative effects, we understand him to claim only that it is a pure and reliable article of Holland Gin, and, as such, worthy of the confidence of physicians, in those diseases for which they are wont to prescribe it, and have, hitherto, only been restrained by finding it impracticable to obtain the article in a pure state. Nor should any prejudice against alcoholic medicine deprive the afflicted of the benefit of this article, which, from time immemorial, has held its place among the remedial agents of the Materia Medica, if it be found worthy of confidence by continued experience. A still events, those who persist in the employment of toleration and of other alcoholic medicines, as tinctures, bitters, &c., and especially those who prescribe Gin under any circumstances, must all unite in giving the preference to a pure article, over the manifold adulterations so rife in the markot. Mr. Wolfe liberally supplies physicians with a sample bottle for analysis and trail, as set forth in his circular, and stakes the reputation of the remedy upon the immocence, safety and efficiency of his Holland Gin, when used under medicine addicates; and piedges his own character in business that the article will not desappoint any who use it. We shall take occasion hereafter to discuss the whole subject of alcoholic medicine, a tupic which has recently been aftracting much attention in Europe an

Traveller as follows, in relation to a paragraph upon the comparative merits of certain famous telescopes, which we copied from that paper last week:

Editors of Travellers: A friend has directed my attention to an article in The Traveller, of Friday, the 24th, correcting an error in the report of friday the 24th, correcting an error in the report of friday the 1st was, as you supposed, a mistake on the part of the reporter. What I said was, that although the Cambridge telescope is so much smaller than the Ross telescope, (not the Russian) yet from the superiority of Refracture over Reflectors, i deemed the Cambridge instrument a more desirable possession even than that, and thought it a matter of great national interest that our country has so noble a telescope, probably the finest in the world.

I take this opportunity to remark that, in reports of scientific lectures, entire accuracy is hardly to be expected. Such reports of my lectures on Astronomy at the New York Tabernacle as have met my eye, have in general appeared to me to indicate an earnest decire on the part of the reporters to convey a correct impression of the discourse. Some of them appears to be executed with unusual skill; but as the writers may be presumed not to be familiar with the science, occasional mistakes would occur, which, appearing as they did in different papers, could not compile triends to believe that, after meny years devoted to the study and teaching of Astronomy, I would not commit errors in the plain statement of either the facts or doctrines of the science.
